• UNEMPLOYMENT WAITING WEEK WAIVED

Say that three times real fast. That state of Indiana released last night that the customary waiting week has been waived for all applicants who file for unemployment in the state of Indiana. How does this affect you as you file claims for sub pay and what do I do? Members starting a new unemployment benefit period must first enter the “set up your monetary determination” information which is your Benefit begin date, WBA weekly benefit amount and MBA Maximum benefit amount. Then click on “Apply for a Weekly Benefit” and click on March 29th, 2020. If you are sub eligible you will still answer yes to the question, “have you or will you receive sub pay” when you file your unemployment claim. On Sunday March 29th, if you filed your unemployment claim correctly, you will receive confirmation or a check for $390.00 that has been deposited in your account for unemployment. To keep it as simple as we can, to avoid confusion and everyone gets paid correctly just remember this... You cannot apply for sub until your unemployment check is confirmed, period. Your unemployment check is the only thing that can validate your sub pay benefit. If you file for unemployment incorrectly and don't receive it, but still file for sub and receive a sub check they will take it back from you at a later date. PLEASE LET US HELP YOU BEFORE YOU GET INTO THAT SITUATION! After receiving confirmation that you were paid your unemployment, again follow these steps for SUB.
